

Some Local Scribblizations Logan Council

Something About Many of the Happenings in the Town and County this Week.

Mrs. H. G. Hayball made a trip to Cache Junction on Thursday.

"Nettie, the Newgirl" is billed for the 8th—Tuesday night.

Lost—String of red mother-of-pearl beads. Bring beads or information to this office.

John Stevens, assistant agronomist at the A. C. of U., has gone to Malad for a few days.

For Rent—The old stand of Bell Brothers on First North. Inquire of Bell Brothers.

Mrs. Willard Robinson, of Star Valley, came to Logan on Wednesday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hayball leave next Monday for Ocean Park, California, to be gone about ten weeks.

Wanted: A competent girl for general house work. Good wages will be paid; at 168 North 1st. East street.

J. R. Fuhrman, of Providence, leaves next Tuesday to do missionary work in Switzerland, the home of his ancestry.

H. J. Frederick, veterinarian at the A. C. of U., went to Ogden and Salt Lake on Thursday to test dairy herds in those localities.

A. D. Smith and wife of Preston, Hyrum Hatch and S. P. Morgan of Franklin, and Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of Richmond came to Logan on Thursday.

Lost—Four head of two-year-old heifers; crop off left ear, branded oval circle with bar across center on left hip. Reward will be paid by Bell Brothers.

A large stock of ladies' gents' and misses felt shoes and slippers, also gents' and boys' fleeced lined underwear, is now being closed out regardless of cost, at Andreas Peterson's.

The regular monthly priesthood meeting of Cache Stake will be held at the tabernacle today at 10 o'clock. A full attendance is desired. Isaac Smith, N. W. Kimball, Joseph Cardon, Stake presidency.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rampton, who have been in Logan a few days visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Cash, returned to their home at Bountiful Thursday morning. Mr. Rampton is proprietor of a mercantile establishment and the opera house at Bountiful and business affairs compelled him to cut short a very pleasant visit.

Frank Dewitt, of Blacksmith Fork, and Miss Emma Larsen, of this city, were married in Salt Lake last Tuesday. A reception was given at the Dewitt ranch on Wednesday at which relatives from Logan were in attendance. Many splendid gifts were presented to the couple. The gentleman is a brother of Robert Dewitt, of this city, and the young lady was formerly from the Fourth ward.

A telegram received at Washington D. C. on Tuesday and forwarded to this city, said that the delegation of ten congressmen, among whom is Congressman Howell, had reached Panama safely. The gentlemen intend making a thorough inspection of the canal work, and this will probably take them two weeks. The delegation was selected by President Roosevelt as being the best qualified to pass judgment upon the stupendous project now in the course of construction. That Congressman Howell was selected as one of the ten reflects no little credit on him and the state of Utah.

An item that has been inadvertently omitted from this paper is in reference to the death and burial of Anona, the three-year-old daughter of A. H. Lindquist, of Portatello. The little girl was buried in the Logan cemetery on December 23rd, the death resulting from diphtheria but a day or two before. Owing to the nature of the malady, a prompt burial was deemed advisable, and as a consequence few Logan friends knew of the funeral until it was over. At the services E. W. Robinson, C. L. Olsen and Christian Olsen imparted comforting words to the relatives. Mrs. A. H. Lindquist was unable to be present. The child is said to have been one of exceptional sweetness and the parents, who are left with but one little boy, are almost inconsolable.

The big Clearance Sale at THE HUB is now on in full blast. Men's and Boys' 60c Sweats, 50c Dress Shirts, 25c, 35c

James C. Jensen was over from Hyrum Thursday.

County Attorney Walters was at Ogden first of the week on legal business.

C. W. Nibley Jr. left Thursday for Meacham, Oregon. The family will probably go there later.

Two splendid calendars that have reached this office lately are those of the Cardon Jewelry Co. and the Spande Furniture Co. To the art connoisseur in most establishments in Logan that indulged in calendars this year, reproductions of the female figure seemed the only fitting thing, and thus it was with Cardon and Spande. The former's calendar is different from most in that it is a dark card from which "Autumn," a charming young lady in a picture hat bearing grapes where the front of her dress should be, stands out in bold relief, an excellent example of embossed work. This calendar is a "nifty" article. The Spande calendar is a large panel picture bearing an oval "Autumn," a delightful soul done in rich colors and with her back turned that one may get a view of the graceful curves that her drapery exposes rather than hides. Both calendars make good "den" pictures, and help out a living room.

PRESTON ITEMS

New Opera House Opened. Other Notes.

PRESTON, January 2, 1907.—Xmas night the new $20,000 opera house was thrown open to the public. A dance for the children was given free, and at night more than 200 numbers were sold to the converts of the "poetry of motion." The dancing social was a swell affair and a huge success. The people of Preston are proud, and justly so, of this amusement building, and neither time, expense nor difficulty has daunted the stockholders in giving to the public a thoroughly modern and elegantly equipped opera house. In view of the popular "fad" so prevalent at present, the owners and manager of the building have decided to bow obedience to the "roller-skating maiden," and henceforth the opera house will be converted into a skating rink. Several hundred pairs of skates have been ordered.

The new Academy building will be ready for occupancy January 7, at the opening of the second semester of the current year's work. Teachers and students are decidedly enthusiastic in view of condition that will be obtained in the future. The Academy is enjoying its brightest year—more than 300 students being now enrolled. An addition to the faculty is to be made immediately in the person of Joseph G. Nelson, a teacher of liberal ideas, and many years' experience.

The recent smallpox scare, so harmful to Preston business men was nothing but a hoax and a "bugaboo" and never did take real form and meaning save in the mind of Supt. R. N. Hill. The cases under suspicion were naught but chickenpox, and had been previously diagnosed as such by Dr. A. R. Cutler. The chickenpox resembles the smallpox about as much as varioloid does celluloid.

The Independent Telephone company has made its debut in Preston. With comparatively little soliciting on the part of the company, 72 subscribers are now registered and the number is daily increasing. Your correspondent bespeaks for the Independent people a bright future, radiant with financial hope.

Joseph Davies and W. P. Monson, of Preston, and Denmark Jensen, of Mink Creek, visited Malad this week and are now full-fledged county officers.

Personals.

Professor and Mrs. Henry Otte returned from Logan yesterday. Professor Otte is actively engaged in preparation for the operetta, "The Merry Milkmaids."

Mrs. Sarah A. Casto, mother of Prof. Geo. D. Casto, and two daughters, Misses Ella and Olive Casto, are spending the week in Preston as guests of Professor and Mrs. Casto.

Instructor Anna Frost, of the sewing department, is visiting at the maternal home in Ephraim.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shulberg is convalescing from pneumonia.

Prof. John W. Cordie and Naham Leigh are attending the Utah State Teachers' convention in Ogden.

What "Fathers" Did at Last Meeting.

The city council held its first meeting of the New Year Wednesday evening. Few things of startling importance came up, and there was a consideration of reports and petitions.

Nine licenses were granted to the various liquor dispensaries in Logan.

It was decided that the ditches should be cleaned by the Street Supervisor.

City Poundkeeper Gnehm reported 71 animals impounded during the quarter with total receipts of $38.50.

C. T. Barrett, inspector of electric wiring, reported having examined 71 homes with 637 wire outlets. The report was referred.

Fire Chief Benson reported two fires during the quarter, one from an overheated stove, the other caused by an electric wire.

F. E. Plowman asked permission to hang metal electric signs in front of the Oak saloon and the opera house. The petition was referred to the committee on Sidewalks with power to act.

Olaf I. Peterson, city water master, reports a total of 610 water users at present. The total assessment for the year, 1906, was $4,500. There is a grand total of 11,938 feet of water mains.

Marshal Peterson's report showed six arrests for assault and battery, three for drunkenness, one for disturbing the peace, one for keeping a gambling house, one for fighting, one for maintaining a nuisance.

Mrs. Lucinda Finlayson represents to the council that the contents of a cesspool constructed on the premises of Hyrum Crockett percolate through the soil into her well and cellar but twenty feet distant and asks that "the nuisance" be abated. The matter was referred to the Board of Health.

City Justice Pedersen reported fourteen prisoners brought into court during the quarter, with twelve convictions and two acquittals. Two cases have been appealed to the District court, these being the case of Logan City vs. Henry Reese, fined $50 for keeping a gambling house; the other being that of Logan City vs. S. A. Langton, local manager of the Consolidated Implement Co., who was fined $50 for doing business without a license. There was a grand total of $47.50 fines collected.

Supervisor Blanchard's report shows about 800 in this city liable to polltax. One hundred and three owe the amount, and this is left for the county attorney to collect by process of law. During the year the polltax has graded one-half block in the First ward, two and one-half blocks in the Third ward, one and one-half blocks in the Fourth, one and one-fourth in the Fifth, one and one-third in the Sixth, two and one-fourth in the Seventh, and a little work has been done generally over the city.

The council adjourned to meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Boosting the West.

The Salt Lake Tribune is engaged, as it has been for years, in boosting for the intermountain west. In the past few years it has expended much time, energy, space and money in this work. It is of and for the west. It believes in the future greatness of the vast interior region comprising the states of Utah, Idaho, Nevada and Wyoming, and is doing its utmost to build up all these states by bringing into them men and money for the development of their wonderful agricultural, mineral and other resources.

If not already familiar with The Tribune, write for a free sample copy of either daily, Sunday or semi-weekly. Address The Tribune, Salt Lake City, Utah.
